

COOL TOOL. FAST LABELS. GREAT PRICE.

RHINO 3000™ is the advanced labeler that's portable and affordable. When it comes to labeling your work, you'll find that RHINO 3000 fits your needs and budget. What's more, it's so easy to carry and use, you'll reach for it without thinking twice.

The features you need. A cost you'll appreciate. RHINO 3000 has been designed by installers, for installers – for fast, efficient labeling of home theaters, professional audio/video systems, home automation, security networks and much more. With powerful "Hot Key" functionality and label memory, you'll save time on every job. And with its impact-resistant rubber bumper and backlit display, you'll have no problem handling it, finding it, even dropping it.

RHINO labels stick and last. Our easy-to-peel, split-back labels resist heat, UV, moisture and more. And because they stick and stay stuck, you'll build your reputation while you save time and money.

Get RHINO 3000 and get the job done, for less.
